Communication at the meeting shall be conducted electronically using, but not limited to: telephone, email, Internet Relay Chat, message forums and electronic audio or video transmissions.

- (i) Motions to be considered at a Meeting, including all supporting documentation, shall be presented to the Secretary at least 72 hours prior to the meeting. If more than four (4) Directors are required to bring the total number of Directors to eight (8), then each of the Members receiving the next highest vote totals from the annual election required to bring the total number of Directors to eight (8) will be considered an elected Director and each such Director will hold office for a term of one (1) year.

4.4. Special Elections

- (i) Special Elections may be held at any time when a vacancy exists unless the time of the Special election would fall within the one (1) months prior to the Annual Election; and

When multiple Directors are the subject of a removal action, each will be considered separately and each vote to remove a Director shall be a separate vote. The termination of a Director may be with or without cause.

4.7. Vacancy

Vacancies of Director positions may arise from time to time and may be due to death, resignation, termination, completion of elected term or lack of electable candidates. Vacancies may be filled by Annual Elections or Special Elections of Directors. In the event the board has 4 or fewer Directors, no new business may be conducted until the vacancies are filled. Each Board member is authorized to exercise one vote. At all meetings of the Board, a question shall be resolved by poll only if required by the Secretary or requested by any Board member.
